NIFTY VIEW :Looking ahead, a sustained move above 22,650 could trigger further short-covering, potentially pushing NIFTY toward the 22,800 – 23,000 zone. However, near 23,200, a major resistance from a falling trendline presents a crucial trend-changing zone. Only a weekly close above 23,200 would confirm that the market is out of the woods; until then, it remains a tug-of-war between bulls and bears.
