

Mahindra Aerospace Private Limited

Interarch delivered manufacturing unit for Mahindra Aerospace Pvt. Limited for production of smaller civil aircraft and aero structure components for the Indian general aviation market. Over 80 projects have been delivered across various industries in Karnataka and more than 250 projects across Southern India by Interarch.

Mahindra Aerospace Pvt. Ltd was formed in 2008 as part of Mahindra & Mahindra's System Sector, to offer expertise in automotive design and manufacturing to the aerospace industry. The company has two business units: Utility Aircraft and Aero structures. Being an Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) for two globally proven utility aircraft programs, they also aim to capture significant growth opportunities in India's defense and civil aerospace market. Mahindra Aerospace Private Limited (MAPL), a Mahindra & Mahindra Group company, specializes in development of aircraft and aero structures components. They design and manufacture utility aircraft and provide comprehensive aero structures to customers.
