4.2. SEXUAL HARASSMENT REDRESSAL PROCESS

4.2.1. Filing of Complaint:

In order to ensure that a free and fair investigation takes place without any prejudice to any of the parties, the following guidelines must be followed:

- a. Any Woman Employee i.e an Aggrieved Woman who has been subjected to any act of Sexual Harassment at the Workplace may file a written complaint of Sexual Harassment ("Complaint") before the Committee within a period 3 (three) months from the date of the incident. Further, in the case of a series of instances of Sexual Harassment, a complaint may be filed within a period of 3 (three) months from the date of occurrence of the last incident. The Aggrieved Woman shall submit 6 (six) copies of the complaint to the Committee along with documentary proof, oral or written material, etc., name and addresses of the witnesses (if any), to substantiate the complaint.

- b. The aforesaid period not exceeding 3 (three) months for filing of complaint by an Aggrieved Woman, may be extended by the Committee, if the Committee is satisfied that the circumstances were such, which prevented the Aggrieved Woman from filing the complaint within the aforementioned period. Further, the Committee is required to record the reasons for delay in filing of the complaint by the Aggrieved Woman in writing.
- c. Complaints expressed anonymously WILL NOT BE investigated.
- d. Where the complaint by the Aggrieved Woman cannot be made in writing, the Presiding officer or any Member of the Committee shall render all reasonable assistance to the Aggrieved Woman for making the complaint in the writing.
- e. Where the Aggrieved Woman is unable to make the complaint due to her mental or physical incapacity or death or otherwise, complaint may be filed by:
 - i. her relative or friend;
 - ii. a special educator;
 - iii. a qualified psychiatrist or psychologist;
 - iv. the guardian or authority under whose care she is receiving treatment or care;
 - v. any person who has the knowledge of the incident
 - vi. any person who has the knowledge of the incident with the written consent of her legal heir, in case of death of the Aggrieved Woman.
- f. Upon receipt of a complaint from an Aggrieved Woman the Committee shall hold a meeting with the Aggrieved Woman within five (5) days of the receipt of the complaint, but no later than seven (7) days in any case.
- g. On receiving complaint, the Committee may advise the alleged harasser to refrain from contacting the Aggrieved Woman, even if they share work relationship that needs contact or communication in the discharge of their duties. In such circumstances, the contact and communication shall only be held via their Managers.

4.2.2. Settlement and Conciliation

- a. The Committee may, before initiating an inquiry and at the request of the Aggrieved Woman take steps to settle the matter through conciliation, provided that no monetary settlement shall be made as a basis of conciliation.
- b. After the matter has been settled between the Aggrieved Woman and Respondent, the Committee shall record the terms of the settlement and send a copy of the same to the Employer to take such necessary actions as may be recommended by the Committee. Copies of the settlement shall also be provided to the Aggrieved Woman and the Respondent.

- c. In cases where a settlement has been reached no further inquiry shall be conducted by the Committee. However, if the terms of the settlement have not been complied with by the Respondent, the Committee shall initiate an inquiry in relation to the complaint immediately.

4.2.3. Investigation & Inquiry Process

- a. In case the Aggrieved Woman does not wish to settle in accordance with Para 4.2.2 above, the Committee shall initiate a formal inquiry into the complaint and take appropriate steps for resolving the complaint. The Committee shall upon initiation of an inquiry communicate the same to both the Aggrieved Woman and the Respondent.
- b. The Committee will hold a meeting with the Aggrieved Woman within 5 (five) days of the receipt of the complaint, but not later than 7 (seven) days from receipt of a complaint. The Committee shall hear the Aggrieved Woman and record the allegations. The Committee shall prepare a statement of the allegations made by the Aggrieved Woman and provide the Respondent with a copy of the complaint within 7(seven) working days from the date of receipt of the complaint by the Aggrieved Woman.
- c. The Respondent, shall file his reply along with all supporting documents, names and addresses of the witnesses within 10(ten) working days from the date of receipt of the complaint.
- d. During the course of inquiry, both the parties will be given an opportunity of being heard. The Committee shall record its finding with reasons and shall provide both the Aggrieved Woman and Respondent with copies of the findings of the Committee to enable them to make their representations against the findings of the Committee.
- e. The Aggrieved Woman and Respondent shall file their representations within 10 (ten) days of receipt of the findings of the Committee.
- f. The Committee shall conduct the inquiry based on the representations filed by the Aggrieved Woman and the Respondent and shall call upon all witnesses, if any, mentioned by both the parties in their respective representations.
- g. The Committee shall conduct the inquiry in accordance with the Principles of natural justice.
- h. In this process it should be ensured that at all times the dignity of both the Aggrieved Woman and the Respondent is respected and the matter conducted in strict confidentiality.
- i. The Committee shall complete the inquiry within 90 (ninety) days from the date of receipt of the complaint.
- j. The Inquiry report has to be issued within 10 days from the date of completion of inquiry by the Committee. The report will be submitted not only to the Employer but also a copy of the same shall be submitted to the Aggrieved Woman and Respondent.
- k. Committee may give their recommendations to the Employer and the final decision i.e. whether the charges are proved, what is the severity and what punishment should be given will be decided by him who is an independent entity.

- I. During the conduct of an inquiry in relation to a complaint filed by an Aggrieved Woman, the Committee shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Civil Procedure Code, 1908 when trying a suit in respect of the following matters:
 - i. summoning and enforcing attendance of any person and examining him/her on oath;
 - ii. requiring the discovery and production of documents; and
 - iii. any other matter as may be prescribed under the Act and the Rules made thereunder.
- m. The Committee shall have the right to terminate the inquiry proceedings or to give an ex-parte decision on the Complaint, if the Complainant or Respondent fails, without sufficient cause, to present themselves, for 3 (three) consecutive hearings convened by the Presiding Officer. Provided that such termination or ex-parte order may not be passed without giving a notice in writing, 15 (fifteen) days in advance, to the party concerned.
- n. The Complainant and the Respondent shall not be allowed to bring in any legal practitioner to represent them in their case at any stage of the proceedings before the POSH Committee.

4.2.4. Reliefs to the Aggrieved Woman during pendency of inquiry:

The Committee may, during the pendency of the inquiry, upon receipt of a written request from the Aggrieved Woman, recommend to the Employer to grant the following reliefs to the Aggrieved Woman:

- i. transfer the Aggrieved Woman or Respondent to another workplace; or
- ii. grant leave to the Aggrieved Woman (other than as the Aggrieved Woman is entitled to as per Employer's leave policy) upto a period of 3 (three) months; or
- iii. grant such other relief to the Aggrieved Woman as may be prescribed by the Committee and/or the applicable provisions of the Act.
- iv. Prevent the respondent from assessing her work performance.

The Committee, at the written request of the Aggrieved Woman, may recommend to restrain the Respondent from reporting on the work performance of the Aggrieved Woman or writing her confidential report.

4.2.5. Recommendations by the Committee

- a. If the Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the Respondent has not been proved, it shall recommend to the Company that no action is required to be taken in the matter.

- b. If the allegation against the Respondent has been proved, the Committee may recommend the Employer to take actions for Sexual Harassment as a misconduct in accordance with the service rules if applicable or where no service rules exists, recommend the following actions:

 - viii. Making Respondent to carry out any community service
 - ix. To deduct such amount as it may consider appropriate from the salary or wages of the Respondent to be paid to the Aggrieved Woman determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Act and Rules.

4.2.6. Complaints made with malicious intent

- a. In the event, the Committee arrives at the conclusion that the complaint made by the Aggrieved Woman or any other person making the complaint, is malicious or false or the Aggrieved Woman has produced any forged or misleading document appropriate disciplinary action may be taken by the Employer.
- b. Where the Committee arrives at a conclusion that any witness has given false evidence or produced any forged or misleading document, action will be taken against them as well.
- c. The POSH Act further clarifies that the mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof need not mean that the complaint is false or malicious.

4.3. INQUIRY REPORT AND IMPLEMENTATION

- a. Upon completion of an inquiry, the Committee shall provide a copy of the report to the Employer within a period of 10 (ten) days from the date of completion of the inquiry.
- b. The Employer will direct appropriate action (as specified under section 4.2.5) in accordance with the recommendations proposed by the Committee and act upon the recommendations of the Committee within 60 (sixty) days of receipt of the report by her. A copy of the report shall also be provided to the Aggrieved Woman and the Respondent.

- c. Upon receipt of a report in the manner specified above, the Employer shall implement the recommendation of the Committee as specified in the report, within the timeframes mentioned above, and thereafter within 10 (ten) days of implementation, provide the Committee with a report confirming such implementation.

4.4. GRIEVANCE ARISING ON ACCOUNT OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT FROM A THIRD PARTY
